Welcome to Week 11/2024

Hi N, well, I am really impressed by the dialogue between you and I about travelling. I showed it to S, and he was quite speechless. We should see some reaction from him next week. It's a little quiet, so a little recycling in this week's Mocha Map. But N. will release her article of her trip to Kyoto in December.

Promoting your own topic	How you can contribute	How this will help you.
Nowruz! It's two weeks away, so entice us to share the magic. Preparations, traditions leading up to the celebration. But it also being Ramadan, how does that impact things for the Muslim community?	Share your culture with us, as you and Ismar so eloquently explained.	Expressing and bringing to life an important event in your calendar and making us appreciate it.
Topic 01 S's Scout Trip	How you can contribute	How this will help you.
S, (13 years old) spent a weekend in the Vosges mountains with her scouts and wrote a short article about it.	S is very motivated to improve her English. It is important to keep her motivated. Comment on her article, what you liked, maybe expand some thoughts with your own experiences. Do children the same age have the same opportunities in your region? Ask a question for her to continue the discussion.	General vocabulary expansion. Learning to keep a discussion going for as long as possible.

Topic 02. Kyoto Impressios by N	How you can contribute	How this will help you.
N was in Kyoto during the Christmas period and shared her impressions. She will release the article next week.	Read and comment your impressions & thoughts.	Vocabulary expansion. Commenting and asking questions.
Topic 03 Illnesses and Accidents	How you can contribute	How this will help you.
Ma was struck by food poisoning and Mar was hit by a tabletop. What small mishaps and sicknesses did you once have to deal with, or the typical children's sicknesses?	I know from experience now, but knowing medical and health expressions are hugely important.	Medical and health vocabulary, in context, revision or new expressions.
